

Saveetha School of Engineering, Saveetha University (also known as Saveetha School of Engineering), is a private institute. It was established in 2006 in Chennai, Tamil Nadu. The courses offered by the Saveetha School of Engineering are approved by AICTE. The institute facilitates UG and PG programmes in Full Time and Part Time mode. A total of 73 courses are offered across various specialisations. The institute has 23 specialisations to offer that include Information Technology, Mechanical Engineering, Nanotechnology, Power Engineering, Robotics Engineering, Structural Engineering, VLSI Design. Courses such as B.E. / B.Tech and M.E./M.Tech are provided at Saveetha School of Engineering. The fee for these courses usually ranges between INR 1,20,000-9,00,000. The total seat intake for all the programmes is 3204. Saveetha School of Engineering serves courses in streams such as Engineering, IT & Software, Medicine & Health Sciences and Animation. The average median salary at Saveetha School of Engineering is around INR 4,11,316. The institute has a well-equipped campus with all the advanced facilities.

Particulars   Statistics

Campus Location   Chennai, Tamil Nadu

Courses Offered   UG and PG

No. of Seats   3204

Median Salary   INR 4,11,316

Fees Range   INR 1,20,000-9,00,000

Candidates can pay the BTech course application fee in an offline mode at Saveetha University through demand draft or RTGS transfer after downloading the allotment letter. Candidates must ensure that the application fee must be paid in favour of Saveetha University. Additionally, after paying the application fee, candidates must request a receipt or acknowledgement for their records. The Saveetha University BTech application fee is INR 1000.